

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Monday, April 2

2001

Section of Mercury Road to be closed Tuesday through Friday

Beginning at 7 a.m. Tuesday through 5:30 p.m. Friday, Mercury Road will be closed to through traffic from the west end of Bldg. 4471 to the east end of Bldg. 4481. Access to the Day Care Center will be from Digney Road, east of Bldg. 4481. A road crossing for a sewer modification project is being constructed. For details, call 544-3618.

Call 544-2000 for latest news on this week's Great Moonbuggy Race

Computer sale
10 a.m.-1 p.m.
Wed. in Bldg. 21,
Intergraph. Call
544-4667

April is 'Environmental Awareness Month' at Marshall

April is "Environmental Awareness Month" at the Marshall Center. The 2001 Earth Day theme, "2001: An Earth Odyssey," reminds us that we are on an adventurous journey through space, and the Earth is our spaceship which has limited resources. How we use those resources, determines the quality and length of the journey.

Breast cancer awareness 'lunch, learn' set April 11

A breast cancer awareness "lunch and learn" workshop will be held from 11 a.m.-noon April 11 in Bldg. 4200, room P110. Marshall and contractor employees may attend. For reservations, call Rita Evans-McCoy at 544-7507.

NASA 'goes to the Stars' 7:05 p.m.
April 13, Joe Davis Stadium. Pick up free tickets from admin officers